

What can EO methods contribute to the development (population) of Resource Efficiency macro/meso scale indicators - with a particular focus on mining activities?

At which scale are the potentials highest?

What could indicators benefit from EO data regarding:

Accuracy?

Timeliness?

Costs??

What is the applicability of EO methods to improve the current material accounting schemes?

on European flows

on global material flows